JUICE FEAST

At kemara, we try are very best to source organically Certified Fruits and Vegetables.

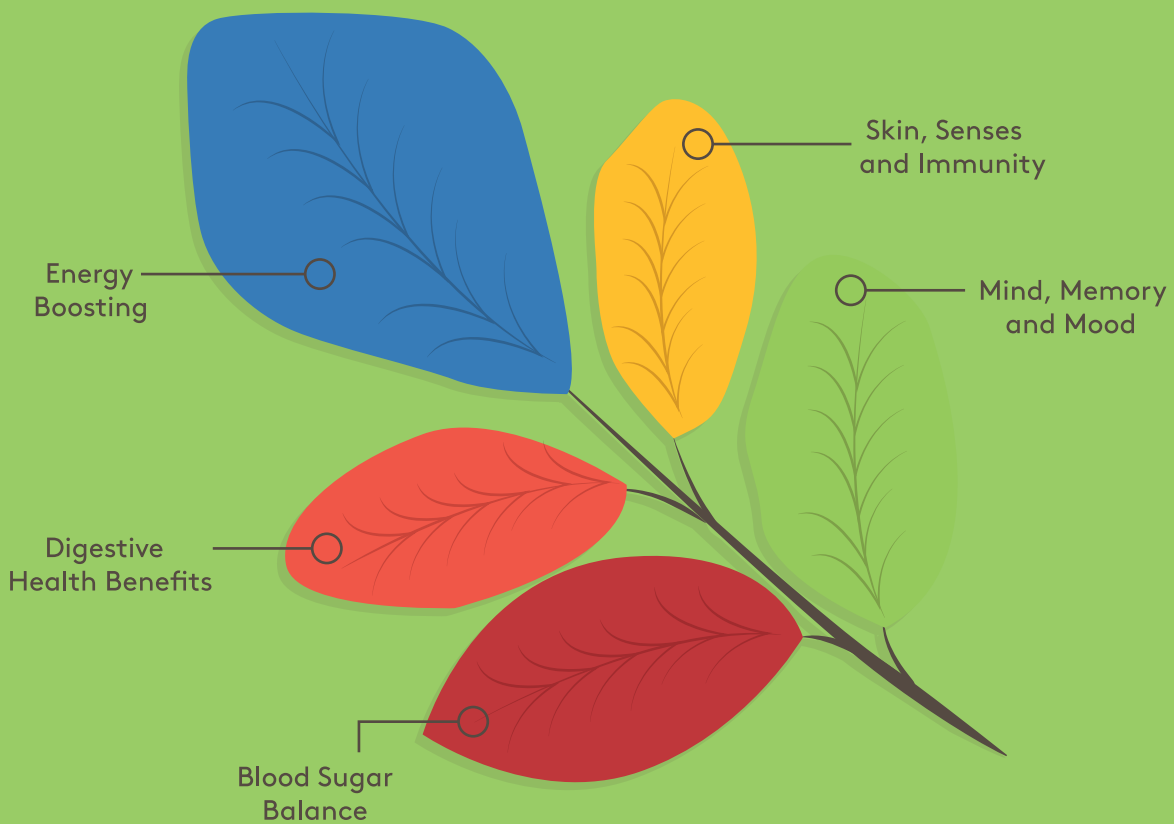

The Juices are cold-pressed, organic where ever possible and preservative-free, Cold-pressing keeps the enzymes and vitamins intact in the juice. This gives your body the best available nutrients and the easiest time digesting. Unlike commercial juices, the kemara juices are still alive when you drink it!

The Juices are enhanced with an added twist of organically certified essential oils which tastes and smells amazing and loaded with therapeutic properties.

Only the best therapeutic grade edible essential oils are used, all essential oils are food grade and organically certified by UK Soil Association

The Kemara Moringa leaf system has been devised to communicate how we support and improve health and wellbeing into different categories, each represented by a moringa petal.

Our menu has been crafted to cover all bases on our Moringa leaf system. We are devoted to keeping your bodies happy.
